OVERVIEW

With the growing need for trained pharmacy technicians to assist the overly tasked pharmacist and the emergence of new pharmacies Nationally, PHARM TECHS R US, LLC was established in June 2001. Our goal is to provide well-trained pharmacy technicians to fill those needs. By law, pharmacy technicians are required to be certified. Based on current market survey and analysis and projected growth within this field, we feel that there is a definite need in all communities for training in this rapidly growing career.

PHARM TECHS R US, LLC owners have over 20 years total experience in the pharmacy field in addition to experience in education, human resources, management, and career development.

MEET THE OWNERS

Lenora Holder, MPA, BA, CPht

Lenora was trained as a Hospital Corpsman/Pharmacy Technician in the United States Armed Forces. While on active duty she obtained her undergraduate degree in the field of Human Resources/minor in Psychology. Upon leaving the military, Lenora continued her education and obtained her Masters degree in Public Administration. Lenora always continued to work while pursuing her educational endeavors. She worked as a Pharmaceutical Technician varying from inpatient care to bulk dispensing. She taught pharmacy technician courses at a career school as well. Lenora has also operated as an independent case manager for one of the top Fortune 500 companies. Lenora has the education, skills, and motivation to serve, educate, and mentor tomorrow's medical professionals.

Judy Palmer, MsEd, BS, AA (Pharmacy Technology), CPht

Judy was also trained as a Hospital Corpsman/Pharmacy Technician in the U.S. Navy. When she left the navy, she went on to obtain her AA degree in Pharmacy Technology. As she worked in nursing homes passing out medicine, she pursued her BS degree in Health Care Management and then went to work in a hospital pharmacy. Judy developed and managed a Pharmacy Technician Program at a career school, unfortunately the school closed several years later. She obtained her MS degree in Education during that time. Judy went on to working in other schools in the career development field missing the pharmacy arena. Keeping abreast to what is going on in the pharmacy industry and the Hampton Roads Area, PHARM TECHS R US, LLC became a reality.
